

ABOUT US

ACE stands for Alternate Community Economy.

It is a network connecting community businesses and people, assisting them to easily and securely trade with each other.

The benefits are manifold. Instead of trading revenue leaving your community it will be retained, boosting your local community economy.

Communities will become more prosperous and self-sufficient and less vulnerable to external threats and potential system disruptions or failures.

